

Welcome to the official Pullman city government Web site. Pullman, with its historical roots in agriculture, was incorporated on April 11, 1888. It has matured into a community with small-town comforts and cosmopolitan amenities. Home to world class Washington State University, Pullman benefits from a diverse and international student population, PAC 12 sporting events as well as cultural and entertainment programs.

The seeds of high technology are also flourishing in Pullman's fertile environment. View the Southeast Washington Economic Development Association's "Palouse Business...Palouse Life" video here

.

Pullman has received numerous awards over the years and has been recognized in national publications as an outstanding community.

Pullman bears other fruits as a result of its well-educated, involved and generous year-round population. During fall 2002, voters approved the creation of a metropolitan park district for the purpose of improving, maintaining and acquiring parks and recreation facilities. As a result, Pullman enjoys 15 distinct parks and natural areas encompassing more than 140 acres as well as more than 8 miles of pathways to walk, run or bike, making Pullman a community of parks and paths.

Pullman is a great place -- high tech, higher education and highest quality of life. Come home to stay.